
Adam Montfort Cavan DAY

DAY, Adam Montfort Cavan

On Wednesday, July 5, 2017, in Toronto, Adam Day, who wrote for Legion Magazine from 2004 until recently, winning the Ross Munro Media Award in 2012 for his canon of work on Afghanistan published in Legion Magazine, and in his book Witness To War. Aged 42, survived by his parents Wilfred Day and Margaret Cavan Day, sister Alexia, and niece Emilia, all of Port Hope, and sister Patricia Ferrari, niece Lia, and nephew Alex of Whitby. Friends, admirers and family will gather for a Tribute to Adam at the Lions Centre, 29 Thomas St., Port Hope, on Saturday, July 15 from 12 noon until 4 p.m. Stories about Adam will start at 1 p.m. Memorial donations to Courageous Companions (a registered charity which provides certified service dogs to military veterans and first responders suffering operational stress injuries such as PTSD) would be appreciated and may be received at www.rossfuneralchapel.com

Published in The Ottawa Citizen on July 12, 2017
