Read any good books lately? Want to write a review?

The CDA Institute is expanding its content offerings in its flagship journal, ON TRACK, as well as its weekly scan of important news items and updates called What's New, by now including reviews of recently-published academic monographs and edited collections on any aspect of defence and security as it affects Canada. Book review essays are also welcomed and encouraged.

Your thoughtful and scholarly submissions will be accepted at any time throughout the year and will duly be published, after editorial review, in either or both of ON TRACK or What's New. Published reviews will also be archived in a Book Review section on the CDA Institute's new and updated webpage, <http://cdainstitute.ca/>.

The CDA Institute is pleased to offer established and emerging scholars, as well as graduate students, the opportunity to contribute to discussions of defence and security in Canada by offering these two venues for publication. Submitted reviews will help to grow both ON TRACK and What's New, thus ensuring that they remain relevant to a wide and diverse audience.

If you are interested in submitting a review, please contact ON TRACK's editor, Dr. Craig Leslie Mantle, at mantlecraig@yahoo.com for further details.

Please forward to ensure wide distribution.

Sincerely,
Craig Leslie Mantle, PhD
