

Dr. Samir Battiss

Dr. Samir Battiss is Senior Lecturer at the department of Political Science / Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM) and teaches namely several courses related to Comparative Defense & Foreign Policies, in North America, Europe, and North Africa.

He is Associate Researcher at the Interuniversity Research Center for Canadian International Relations (National School of Public Administration, Montreal) and at the Paris-based Think Tank Fondation pour la Recherche Stratégique (France).

He is external research supervisor and occasional lecturer at Ecole de Guerre (Joint Forces Staff College Paris, France) (political-strategic level).

Samir Battiss is an alumnus of several Young Leaders & Fellowship programs: Strategic Studies Network of the Near East South Asia (NESA) - Center for Strategic Studies (US, National Defense University); "Young Atlanticist" - Atlantic Council of the United States; "Transatlantic Leadership Initiative" German Marshall Fund of the United States; Mediterranean Dialogue Program (NATO Defense College Italy).

He holds a PhD degree from the Sorbonne Universities (Campus Assas, Paris - France) and is owner of the consulting firm Il Principe International Consulting (IPIC), LLC.

Languages: Arabic & French (Mother tongues); English & German (full professional); Spanish (basics)