

The Honourable David Pratt, P.C., KStG

Principal, David Pratt & Associates

Principal, David Pratt & Associates: (present) In September 2012, I established my own consulting company. I represent companies seeking procurement opportunities in the area of defence and security.

Minister of National Defence (2003 -2004)

Working under Prime Minister Paul Martin as a member of his Cabinet, and with accountability to Parliament, I provided political and policy leadership to the Canadian Forces and the Department of National Defence on matters within jurisdiction of the National Defence Act.

Member of Parliament for Nepean-Carleton (1997- 2004)

My committee service included National Defence and Veterans Affairs (Member 1997-2003, Chairman 2001-03), Environment and the Justice Sub-committee on National Security. I was Chairman of first Liberal Caucus Committee on Foreign Affairs, National Defence and International Co-operation.

I was born and raised in Ottawa. I am married to Dr. Alison Buchanan and have one daughter, one stepdaughter and two stepsons who I play hockey with.
