

HCol Chiko Nanji

Group Chief Executive Officer

Founder and sole owner of Metro Supply Chain Group

HCol of The Army Intelligence Regiment

Mr. Nanji is a prominent Canadian businessman based in Montreal and Toronto. In 1972 his family along with all those of Indian or Pakistani descent were expelled from Uganda by Idi Amin. The Nanji family chose Canada as their new home. Landing that same year, the family took up residence in Montreal. On the completion of his education Mr. Nanji set out to establish a career in business. Mr. Nanji is now the Group Chief Executive Officer, founder and sole owner of Metro Supply Chain Group. Metro operates approximately 45 logistics centers in North America and Europe and employs over six thousand people. Mr. Nanji is also Chairman of LDC Logistics Development Corporation, a leading real estate, development and investment company.

Mr. Nanji is an active philanthropist who through his Nanji Family Trust continues to provide significant financial support to a wide range of causes including to various hospitals, educational institutions and Ismaili charities.

Mr. Nanji is the Exclusive Vimy Award Sponsor 2018-2020- an annual award presented at the CDA Institute gala, that recognizes Canadians who have made outstanding commitments to Canadian security and defence.