

THE 2019 VIMY AWARD RECIPIENT

RICHARD B. FADDEN, O.C.

Mr. Richard B. Fadden was the National Security Advisor to the Prime Minister from January 19, 2015 to March 31, 2016. Previously he was the Deputy Minister of National Defence starting in May 2013, he served as the Director of the Canadian Security Intelligence Service from 2009 until 2013. He has also served as the Deputy Minister for Citizenship and Immigration Canada from 2006 to 2009, the Deputy Minister of Natural Resources Canada from 2005 to 2006, President of the Canadian Food Inspection Agency from 2002 to 2005, and Deputy Clerk and Counsel in the Privy Council Office from 2000 to 2002. In early 2001, he took on the additional position of Security and Intelligence Coordinator.

In the course of his career, Mr. Fadden worked in a variety of different positions across the Government of Canada including in the Department of External Affairs, the Office of the Auditor General of Canada, Natural Resources Canada and the Treasury Board Secretariat.

Mr. Fadden holds a Graduate Diploma in Law from the University of Ottawa, a Bachelor of Laws from the Université de Montréal, and a Bachelor of Arts (Political Science) from McGill University.

He is an Officer of the Order of Canada.

He is a native of the Province of Quebec. He is married with two children.

Currently, he serves on a number of boards, is a Senior Fellow at the University of Ottawa's Graduate School of Public and International Affairs and speaks on a variety of public policy issues.

LE LAURÉAT DU PRIX VIMY 2019

RICHARD B. FADDEN, O.C.

Du 19 janvier, 2015 au 31 mars 2016, M. Richard B. Fadden a occupé le poste de Conseiller à la sécurité nationale et aux renseignements auprès du premier ministre, et ce, après avoir occupé les postes suivants :

Sous-ministre de la Défense nationale (mai 2013-mars 2016); Directeur du Service canadien du renseignement de sécurité (2009-2013); Sous-ministre de Citoyenneté et Immigration Canada (2006-2009); Sous-ministre des ressources naturelles Canada (2005-2006); Président de l'Agence canadienne de l'inspection des aliments (2002-2005); Greffier adjoint et conseiller, Conseil privé (2000-2002); et en 2001, le poste de coordonnateur de la sécurité et du renseignement.

M. Fadden est diplômé en droit de l'Université d'Ottawa; détenteur d'un licence en droit de l'Université de Montréal; et d'un baccalauréat es arts (science politique) de l'Université McGill. Il est récipiendaire de l'Ordre du Canada au grade d'Officier.

Né au Québec, marié et père de deux enfants, M. Fadden est membre de plusieurs conseils d'administration, Chercheur principal de l'École supérieure d'affaires publiques et internationales de l'Université d'Ottawa.