

THE 27TH ANNUAL GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE

COLONEL (RET'D) CHARLES DAVIES
Senior Fellow
CDA Institute

Colonel Charles Davies (Retired) is a Senior Fellow of the CDA Institute, and a former Canadian Armed Forces Logistics officer and Public Servant. He held a number of executive positions in the Department of National Defence, including four years as the strategic planning director for the Material Group and three years as the senior director responsible for material acquisition and support policy, business processes and standards across the Department. He is also a former chair of the senior NATO committee responsible for Alliance policies related to the acquisition and life cycle management of major defence systems. Since retiring from DND in 2013 he has been researching and writing on issues related to defence management, defence procurement, national security, defence policy and related subjects. He is the author of True North Strong? A Canadian Citizen's Guide to National Defence, published in 2024.
