

THE 27TH ANNUAL GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL DAVID KEITH
Air Staff Logistic Advisor
The Royal Canadian Air Force

Lieutenant-Colonel David Keith joined the Canadian Armed Forces in 2001 and graduated from Memorial University in 2004 with a Bachelor of Arts. He began his career with the Navy Reserves as a logistics officer before transferring to the Royal Canadian Air Force in 2013.

During his service, LCol Keith completed two tours in Afghanistan: first as a Detachment Commander for the National Support Element at a Forward Operations Base, and later as a logistics advisor to the Afghanistan National Civil Order Police. He is a graduate of the Joint Command and Staff College in Toronto.

Throughout his career, LCol Keith has held various leadership and staff roles across the CAF, primarily in logistics. He completed his Officer Commanding tour at CFB Trenton with the Wing Replenishment Flight. Currently, he serves in the Air Staff, advising on logistics.

In addition to his professional duties, LCol Keith is pursuing a Master of Business Administration.
