PAUL RUSHTON

Senior Policy Officer

NATO's Defence Policy and Planning (DPP)

Paul Rushton is senior Policy Officer in NATO's Defence Policy and Planning (DPP) Division, Resilience Section, and is responsible for coordinating the implementation of NATO's Climate Change and Security Action Plan. Before joining IHC, he was a team leader in NATO's Arms Control, Disarmament, and Non-Proliferation Centre, where he coordinated the development of NATO's Chemical, Biological, Radiological and Nuclear (CBRN) Defence Policy. He previously served as First Secretary at the Joint Delegation of Canada to NATO, and has worked as a project lead on programming on environmental security, conflict resolution and crisis management with Global Affairs Canada. Before joining GAC, he worked with the UN and diverse NGOs on food security, livelihoods and climate change in fragile and conflict-affected contexts, including Darfur, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Myanmar and Nepal. He holds an MSc in Sustainable Development from the University of London, an MA in International Peace and Conflict Studies from the UN University for Peace in Costa Rica, and a BA in Political Science and Economics from Simon Fraser University in Canada.
