

THE 28TH ANNUAL GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE

Dr. DANIEL DEREK EUSTACE, CD, PhD
Director, Defence and Security Studies Program
Royal Canadian Military Institute

Following a 30-year career as a senior infantry officer in the Canadian Armed Forces with extensive national and international experience in both reserve and regular forces, Dr. Eustace continues to support the Canadian defence and security sectors as Director of the Royal Canadian Military Institute Defence and Security Studies Program. In addition, he provides sessional on-line instruction for professional military education, and undergraduate and graduate-level academic courses for the RMC Department of Defence Studies at the Canadian Forces College.

Dan is a graduate of the Canadian Armed Forces Land Command and Staff College, the Canadian Forces College, the National Defence College, the US Joint Forces Staff College, and the Senior Executives in National and International Security Program at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Canadian History and Politics from York University, a Master of Arts in War Studies from The Royal Military College of Canada, and a Doctor of Philosophy in International Relations from the National University of Ireland.

Dr. Eustace is the recipient of several honours and awards including the General Campaign Star with Afghanistan Bar; Minister of Veterans Affairs Commendation; the Order of St. John, and the Queen Elizabeth II Golden and Diamond Jubilee Medals. He served as an Aide-de-Camp for the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario between 1999 and 2014.
