

THE 28TH ANNUAL GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE

JACQUELINE O'NEILL

Director of Transnational Conflict Analysis and Support
Global Affairs Canada

At Global Affairs Canada, Jacqueline O'Neill is the Director of Transnational Conflict Analysis and Support, focused on: conflict analysis; women, peace, security (including the Elsie Initiative for Women in Peace Operations); and role of the foreign ministry within the G7. Previously, she spent nearly six years as Canada's first Ambassador for Women, Peace and Security.

Ms. O'Neill's experience outside of government includes serving as President of the Institute for Inclusive Security based in Washington, DC, and working at the UN peacekeeping mission in Sudan and at Khartoum's Ahfad University for Women. Along with former Lt. General Roméo Dallaire, she helped found the Roméo Dallaire Child Soldiers Initiative to eliminate the use of children during conflict. Ms. O'Neill was a Global Fellow at the Woodrow Wilson Center's Canada Institute, an Adjunct Professor at Georgetown University, and a member of the board of directors of the Canadian International Council. She has a bachelor's degree in commerce from the University of Alberta and a master's in public policy from the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.
