BRIGADIER TIM SYMONDS OBE

Head Productivity and Sustainability

British Army

Brigadier Tim Symonds OBE has served over 28 years in the British Army, spanning operational deployments in Macedonia, Iraq, and three tours of Afghanistan.

Currently leading the implementation of the British Army Energy and Environment Capability Resilience Strategy, he brings extensive senior leadership experience from organisational transformation roles across the Army Headquarters and the Ministry of Defence.

An incoming 2026/27 CCASCOE Fellow, and Chartered Fellow of both the Institute of Logistics and Transport (FCILT) and the Institute of Personnel and Development (FCIPD), he holds a MA from King's College London and is undertaking further studies with both the Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership (CISL) and the Institute of Sustainability and Environment Professionals (PISEP).
