

THE NATO CLIMATE CHANGE
AND SECURITY CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE

THE CONFERENCE OF DEFENCE ASSOCIATIONS INSTITUTE

MONTRÉAL
CLIMATE SECURITY
SUMMIT

SOMMET
SUR LA SÉCURITÉ CLIMATIQUE DE
MONTRÉAL

SHERRI GOODMAN

Secretary General

International Military Council on Climate and Security

Sherri Goodman is a national security, energy and climate security leader, and former senior defense official. She is the author of Threat Multiplier: Climate, Military Leadership, and the Fight for Global Security, the story of the US military's experience on the front lines of a changing climate.

Sherri serves as the Secretary General of the International Military Council on Climate and Security. She is a Distinguished Fellow at the Atlantic Council and a Senior Associate at the Harvard Arctic Initiative. She is the board chair of the Council on Strategic Risks and serves on the boards of the Atlantic Council and the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution. She is a life member of the Council on Foreign Relations and a member of the Trilateral Commission.

Sherri is the former president and CEO of the Consortium for Ocean Leadership. She served as senior vice president and general counsel of CNA from 2001 to 2014. She is the founder and executive director of the CNA Military Advisory Board, whose landmark reports include National Security and the Threat of Climate Change and Powering America's Defense.

Sherri served as the first Deputy Undersecretary of Defense (Environmental Security) from 1993 to 2001. Goodman served on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, where she was responsible for oversight of the Department of Energy's nuclear weapons complex. She has practiced law at Goodwin Procter and has worked at RAND and SAIC.

Awards include the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Environmental Peacebuilding Association in 2024, honorary doctorate from Amherst College in 2018, Department of Defense Distinguished Service Awards in 1998 and 2001, Gold Medal Award from the National Defense Industrial Organization in 1996, and the Environmental Protection Agency's Climate Change Award in 2000.

She holds degrees from Harvard Law School, Harvard Kennedy School, and Amherst College.