

The Fellowship Programme

ANDREW ERSKINE

Policy Analyst

Government of Prince Edward Island

Andrew Erskine is a Fellow at the Conference of Defence Association Institute, a Fellow at the Canadian Maritime Security Network, and a Nonresident Vasey Fellow at the Pacific Forum. He graduated from the University of Prince Edward Island with a Bachelor of Arts with Honours in History and a Masters of Global Affairs. Andrew has held past fellowships with the Institute for Peace and Diplomacy, the Asia-Pacific Foundation of Canada and the NATO Association of Canada. He was also a 2025 Emerging Leader with Arctic Frontiers and a 2025 Young Leader with the Pacific Forum.

Currently, Andrew works with the Government of Prince Edward Island, having previously held positions with Veterans Affairs Canada and as a Parliamentary and Legislative Assistant to the Member of Parliament for Orléans. Andrew has published with the Conference of Defence Association Institute, the Macdonald-Laurier Institute, the Canadian Global Affairs Institute, Open Canada, the Journal of Indo-Pacific Affairs, the Institute of Peace & Diplomacy, The Hill Times, Breaking Defense and the Defense Post. His work focuses on Canadian security, defence, and foreign policy in the Indo-Pacific, North America, the Arctic and NATO.