

The Fellowship Programme

DR. MICHAEL P.A. MURPHY

Director, Centre for International and Defence Policy

Queen's University

Michael P. A. Murphy is the director of the Centre for International and Defence Policy at Queen's University, where he teaches international security and graduate public administration. His research focuses on emerging technologies, defence policy, international relations, and the intersections of these issues. He is the author of two books, over 40 peer-reviewed articles and numerous policy papers, receiving more than 2400 citations. Michael is an international award-winning educator and his Ph.D. received the University of Ottawa's Joseph De Koninck Thesis Prize. He currently serves as President of the Canadian region of the International Studies Association and Editor of Security Dialogue.