DR. OLIVIER CHOINIÉRE
Associate Professor of Project Management
Université du Québec à Rimouski

Olivier Choinière, PhD, is an Associate Professor of Project Management at the Université du Québec à Rimouski (UQAR), Canada. His research focuses on three main areas: the governance of military and public infrastructure projects, emerging approaches to project management, and the future of work in the public sector. He is an affiliated researcher at the Centre on Governance at the University of Ottawa and the Conference of Defence Associations Institute. His work contributes to both research and practice on the governance of major projects in the public and defence sectors.
