

The Fellowship Programme

DR. FEN OSLER HAMPSON

Chancellor's Professor and Professor of International Affairs

Norman Paterson School of International Affairs \(NPSIA\)

Fen Osler Hampson is a former Director of the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs (NPSIA) (2000-2012). He is currently Chancellor's Professor and Professor of International Affairs in the School and Co-Chair of the Expert Group on Canada-US Relations (with the Hon. Perrin Beatty).

Professor Hampson served as Director of the Global Commission on Internet Governance (GCIG) and is the President of the World Refugee & Migration Council.

Professor Hampson holds a Ph.D. from Harvard University, where he also received his A.M. degree. He also holds an MSc. (Econ.) degree (with distinction) from the London School of Economics and a B.A. (Hon.) from the University of Toronto. A Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, he has authored or co-authored 16 books and edited or co-edited 34 other volumes. He has also written more than 100 articles and book chapters on international affairs. His most recent books are Canada Rising: From Crisis to Renewal, The Two Michaels: Innocent Canadian Captives and High Stakes Espionage in the US-China Cyber War, Braver Canada: Shaping Our Destiny in a Precarious World, and Diplomacy and the Future of World Order.

He is the recipient of several major awards, including an Honorary Degree from Trinity College, University of Toronto in 2025, the 2018 Distinguished Peace Scholar Award from the International Studies Association, the 2022 Distinguished Scholar Award of the Canada section of the International Studies Association (which is awarded every two years), various book awards, and a research and writing award from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation and a Jennings Randolph Peace Fellowship from the United States Institute of Peace.