DR. KIM RICHARD NOSSAL

Professor Emeritus

Queen's University

Kim Nossal received his PhD from the University of Toronto in 1977. He taught at McMaster University from 1976 to 2001, when he moved to Queen's University to head the Department of Political Studies (2001–2009). He subsequently served as director of the Centre for International and Defence Policy at Queen's from 2011-2013 and director of the School of Policy Studies from 2013 to 2015 before retiring from Queen's in 2020. He was awarded an honorary degree by the Royal Military College of Canada in 2017 and elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada in 2019.

He is the author of a number of works on Canadian foreign and defence policy, including The Politics of Canadian Foreign Policy, co-authored with Stéphane Roussel and Stéphane Paquin; this book has gone through four editions in English, two editions in French, and has been translated into Chinese. Nossal's latest book, Canada Alone: Navigating the Post-American World, was published by Dundurn Press in 2023.
