CONTROLLER GENERAL FRÉDÉRIC TOURNAY

Head of the European and International Relations Mission

DGSCGC, Ministry of the Interior

Controller General Frédéric TOURNAY, promoted to this rank in 2025, has served as head of the European and International Relations Mission at the Directorate General for Civil Security and Crisis Management (Ministry of the Interior) since September 2025. In this role, he represents France before European institutions and international organizations responsible for civil protection and crisis management.

A professional fire officer since 1992, trained at the National Fire Academy (ENSOSP), he held operational command positions in Pas-de-Calais and Savoie before designing and directing the technical training program for rescue operation commanders at ENSOSP, where he trained more than 3,000 officers. He served as director of the National Center for Firefighters and Major Risks at the CNFPT (National Center for Local Public Service), then as director of defense and civil protection for French Polynesia. He was deputy departmental director of the Pyrénées-Atlantiques SDIS, where he led the civil security response for the G7 summit in Biarritz (2019), and subsequently served as Departmental Director of the Lot-et-Garonne SDIS from 2021 to 2025.

A graduate of ENSOSP and the Institute of Political Studies in Aix-en-Provence, and a former participant in the Advanced European Studies Program at the National Institute of Public Service (INSP), he is a Knight of the Legion of Honor, the National Order of Merit, and the Order of Tahiti Nui.
