JOSE ANTONIO COLL

Head of sustainability

Airbus Defence and Space

Jose Antonio Coll leads the sustainability strategy, governance, and industrial substantiation framework for Airbus Defence and Space. In this role, he drives the integration of environmental and climate resilience, operational energy efficiency, and science-based climate metrics across the division's core defense and space portfolio and manufacturing ecosystem. Focusing on measurable impact and innovation based on dual-use capabilities, Jose Antonio aligns industrial roadmaps with evolving customer needs—ensuring that strategic decarbonization and resource efficiency directly enhance mission capability, supply chain resilience, and operational readiness.
