JONATHAN BERKSHIRE MILLER

Co-founder and Principal

Pendulum Geopolitical Advisory

Jonathan Berkshire Miller is an internationally recognized expert in security, defence, and geo-economics, advising governments, multinational corporations, and international organizations on geopolitical risk and strategic decision-making. For nearly two decades, he has held senior roles across the private and public sectors, shaping policy and strategy on global economic and security challenges.

Currently, he is co-founder and Principal of Pendulum Geopolitical Advisory, a global consultancy based in Ottawa. He is also a senior fellow at the Ottawa-based Macdonald Laurier Institute, and concurrently a senior fellow with the Centre for Strategic Statecraft, the Montreal Institute for Global Security and the Tokyo-based Asian Forum Japan.

Miller also is the Director and co-founder of the Council on International Policy. He also holds appointments as Canada's ASEAN Regional Forum Expert and Eminent Person (EEP) and as a Responsible Leader for the BMW Foundation. He sits on several boards and is currently on the board of the World Anti-Extremism Network, as well as the Journal of Geoeconomics. Additionally, Miller sits on the North American advisory board of the International House of Japan.

Previously, he was an international affairs fellow with the Council on Foreign Relations, based in Tokyo. Other former appointments and roles include terms as a Distinguished Fellow with the Asia-Pacific Foundation of Canada, and Senior Fellow on East Asia for the New York-based EastWest Institute. Miller has held several other visiting fellowships on Asian security matters, including at the Pacific Forum CSIS, the Japan Institute of International Affairs and the National Institute of Defense Studies (Ministry of Defense – Japan).

The Fellowship Programme

In addition, Miller previously spent nearly a decade working on economic and security issues related to Asia with the Canadian federal government, working both with the foreign ministry and the security community. He regularly attends track 1.5 and track 2 dialogues in the region and lectures to universities, think-tanks, corporations and others on geopolitical issues. He regularly consults, provides advice and presents to the private sector, multilateral organizations and governments on regional geopolitics.
